

Trio Bembe Press Quotes

“Close your eyes, and you are quickly whisked away to any of the legendary clubs in Havana, Rio de Janeiro, or Buenos Aires.” - Curt Penner, The Carillon

“Getting hips moving isn't hard for the trio. They have a driving, exotic rhythm behind the songs that make even the most reluctant listener at least tap their feet.” – Manitoba Music

“Epp may have a Mennonite name, but her influences come from all over the Latin American map: from Chile, Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, Peru and even Spain...”

- Lee Repko, The Uniter

“Growing up in Steinbach may not seem the ideal place for a lover of the hot and loose sounds of the southern hemisphere, but Epp continues to defy skeptics with her passion for the culture, even to the point of learning Spanish and Portuguese, maintaining a great sensitivity to the phrasing, and conveying an understanding in languages not her own.” - Lee Repko, The Uniter

“Epp's disc, Trio Bembe, is a showcase for her musical love, Latin jazz, [and is] more of a get-up-and-dance disc by the nature of the music.” Chris Smith, The Winnipeg Free Press
